“ Miss Cynthia

No one could be more shocked than I at your passing. Devastated would be a better word.

You were my 'Soul Sister' in Music. We shared the same love of the film "American Graffiti" and you even posted Kirk in the VW on my FB Wall, one month before going to be with Jesus.

You're memory of 6th Grade was incredible. You could remember what people said and did 45 years ago. Your knowledge was of the Ages, and you taught in a way that made learning fun, and an Adventure.

You were always a true friend and confidant to me, and I'm honored to have ever known you.

My Prayer is your daughters cherish your memory, and realize how blessed they are to have had you as a Mom. I never met Richard, but I'm sure his heart is broken by your leaving us way too soon. May God grant him Peace.

Sweet Cynthia, remembers me playing the drums at a party in 1982. Someone wrote you were 'too good' for this World, and I will give a 'Hallelujah A-men' to that too.

“Wow, what can I say about Cindy. Never a sweeter girl have I known. Back in the day I was her hair stylist and we would call her the brunette Morgan Fairchild, what a beauty she was. All I have is good sweet memories of Cindy. Heaven has truly received an angel from earth. To Cindy's family my prayers are with you.
