

Dianna Lynne Griswold

February 1, 2019

Dianna Lynne Griswold, who worked at the Catholic Diocese of Little Rock for 23 years, died Feb. 1, 2019 at the age of 62. Born to Max and Lena Peoples Griswold, she attended the University of Memphis. She was a transportation specialist at Cleo Inc. before working at the diocese. She worked most recently as a database administrator in the development office. She previously served as the manager of St. John Center and worked in the youth office and Tribunal. She retired in 2017. She was a member of St. Theresa Catholic Church in Little Rock.

Dianna was known for her love of cats and Halloween and making jewelry and other crafts. She often made greeting cards for her co-workers on their birthdays and at Christmas.

There are no immediate survivors.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11 a.m. on Friday, February 8 in Morris Hall at St. John Center in Little Rock.

Arrangements by Little Rock Funeral Home, (501)224-2200. Dianna's online guestbook may be signed at www.littlerockfuneralhome.com.

“ Dianna was always known as Missy in the Peoples family. Missy was only a year older than me and we had so much in common besides being cousins. We talked many times of how jealous of each other we were when we were little and those memories brought many smiles and laughs to us both. I will miss you so much, my sweet cousin. Give Aunt Lena and Uncle Max a kiss for me and tell them I miss them as well. Sweet dreams.

Love, Renee
