

Molly Crimm Adams

March 5, 2019

Molly Crimm Adams, died March 5, 2019 in Little Rock, Arkansas 10 days from her 98th birthday. Born in Dallas, TX March 25, 1921, Molly grew up mostly in Detroit, Michigan and started her college career at Bethany College in West Virginia. Married for 50 years to H. Marston Adams (d: 1995), she and Marty were a welcoming force of nature. There was always room for one more at the table, always time for one new experience, or one more party to celebrate whatever needed celebrating.

A lover of the arts, Molly was an actor with the Clark Lake Players (Jackson, MI), a museum and opera junky, and a musician who taught children's choirs in Jackson, MI and Detroit, MI. Once her youngest was in school, she went back to college and received her bachelor's in psychology in 1976 from Oakland University.

She and Marty had a life-long passion for traveling and learning. In between travel, they volunteered in elementary schools in Arkansas after retiring from Michigan. Molly was a rock for her family. She shared with us an ever-present love and a deep abiding faith.

Molly is survived by her children: Candy (Mary Kaye), Beth (Bob), Heather (Steve), Jim (Patti), and Nick (Dana), 6 Grandchildren and 4 (soon to be 6) great-grand-grandchildren.

“ Dear Candy, Beth, Heather, Jim and Nick,
I am sorry to hear of your loss, your mother was always special! I will always remember Youth Group Sundays, with your mom providing tacos for our meal!! I do remember her laugh / chuckle. You were all blessed to have here as long as you did. I guess our mothers are singing in a heavenly choir now. Peace be with you all. love,
Sarah

“ Dear Adams Family,
First of all I want to send you my condolences on the loss of your dear mother.

As you probably know Molly was our mother's bridesmaid. I remember seeing a lovely picture of her in one of the pictures in Mom and Dad's wedding album.

I also remember her when I was young as being very strong, stalwart and funny and engaging. She and Marty had our whole family out to your home one Sunday afternoon...what seemed like in the country. If I remember correctly it was an old rambling farmhouse and I envied all of you as I so wanted to live in the country.

And finally, Dad and Mom were always so happy to hear from your Mom after they stopped going to Michigan for the gang get-togethers. I believe I ended up with some of her letter to them. I hope I am correct on that - so if you would like to have those letters let me know. If so, I'll dig around for those and hopefully will find them.

I believe your Mom was the last of the gang to pass away. Her good nature carried her far and am glad all of you had her so long in your lives.

Many blessings with love,
Carolyn Nickles
