“ I am so deeply sorry to hear of Nina’s untimely passing. I first met her when Ryan was in first grade and then we reconnected with Katherine in second. She had a dry wit and was a friend to all. Please know that although she is in a much better place, I will continue to pray for the family. Love to you all.

“ I grew up with Nina in Meadowcliff and went to school with her. Over the years we got back in touch with each other and spoke on the phone and I would see her when I came to Little Rock. She's was an amazing woman that did so much for so many. When my Mother was sick she came to see her and my mom really loved her visits. Now she's with Heavenly Father and no pain and no worries. I will miss her and so many others will feel the loss. God bless the family she loved them all so much.

“ Went to junior high and high school with Nina. We reconnected at a former classmate's bedside two years ago as he was dying of cancer. We talked about how young he was to go through this. Little did we know, two years later it would be her. She was the sweetest person, so full of faith and life and goodness. She will be missed.

“ Nina was a childhood friend of mine. She lived a couple of houses down from me in Meadowcliff. We played together a lot when we were kids. She was always the teacher and I was always the student. She actually taught me quite a bit due to the fact that she was a few years older than me! The school room was in her carport. I had a desk. I think she had a black board.

We also had a "circus" gymnastics routine. We charged some adults to come see us one time in my back yard. I used to accompany her to Elvis movies, too, usually at the Heights Theater. We made mud pies in her back yard on the picnic table, and I have some pictures of her, my little brother, and me playing in the sprinkler in the back yard. If I find them, I'll send you a copy.

I'm so sorry for your loss. She is now in a wonderful place. She lives on as we all do. You will see her again.

“ I met Nina when Ryan was in first grade, then reconnected with Katherine in second grade. She was a fine lady with no pretense in how she saw the world and a great mother and grandmother. This Earth will not gain another Nina, God bless her family in their time of need.

“ I will always remember Nina coming to our photography studio with her daughters. I remember the day she brought Becca in for a pageantry picture as a jungle girl with greenery all around her and fog machine. I remember Nina laughing the whole shoot. Her laughter was contagious. She loved her family like no one can deny. She will be missed by family and so many friends. My thoughts and prayers are with her family. God bless!

“ I am so sorry to learn of Nina Kay's passing. We lived on the same street in San Antonio when she was born. Our mothers were friends and then they moved. I have looked for her for a long time and found this today. It makes me sad
