“ I met Sandra back in 1987. During our 12 years together at CareNetwork, she helped me grow up, laughed with me, cried with me, and was a momma to me when mine was far away. I can still hear her laugh! I'm so thankful for the time we were able to share, and look forward to a grand reunion at some point. Love you, San!!!

“ The Sandra I remember was kind, compassionate, patient and a wonderful example of grace under pressure. My condolences to the Wills family.

“ There is no other person who is so patient that chipmunks and forest animals literally come eat from her lap. She was truly a real life Snow White (did you know your mom was the inspiration for one of the worlds most beloved disney princess?) Touching the lives of everyone she met, so easy to love. I'm among the fortunate that can say I knew her as my other mom

“ I will miss my friend of 32 years.
She brought so much laughter and joy to all her knew her. My heart is broken. I will miss our phone visits and walks down memory lane. She was special. We sat at her dining table for hours holding hands and waiting for news that baby Amber had finally arrived in Florida. Tears of joy. I will miss her sweet never wavering love. It didn't matter if it was weeks or months- we always picked up right where we left off. Tears of sadness fall today Sandra. Rest in love until we meet again. Love you dear friend.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Sandra at Medical Personnel Pool and CareNetwork for 11-12 years. She was very competent, professional, and hard working. She was always very pleasant and even tempered and very easy to get along with! She made the work flow smoothly because she liked her job and she did it well. I very much appreciated and enjoyed her as a coworker. My deepest sympathy to all of her family and friends. You are in my thoughts and prayets.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Sandra at CareNetwork many years ago. She was always patient with the families of the clients and the nurses she assigned to the cases. She was always there to help the employees in the office as well. She will be missed.

“ When I heard about Aunt Sandra, I began thinking about the times she had spent with my family. While we didn't see her, Uncle Scott, Karen, Pam, and Chris often, I remember the times fondly.

They joined us for a Buffalo River float trip and I remember Aunt Sandra not particularly liking the drive down to the river. The road seems to go straight down and Aunt Sandra finally had enough of, to her, the white knuckle ride, and said she would rather walk. Honestly don't remember if she did or we convinced her we were almost to the river.

We all gathered at their house one Thanksgiving and there were too many cooks in the kitchen. Grandma Parkhurst was taking a dish of dressing out of the oven and set it on a hot burner. The dish cracked and dressing went all over the stovetop. Very calmly, Aunt Sandra grabbed a spoon and bowl and scooped up the mess. Didn't have dressing that year.

She and Uncle Scott came to a party at our house and Aunt Sandra was very pregnant with Chris. I overheard her telling my mom she had made her dress for the party and it hadn't turned out quite like she had hoped but she was determined to wear it. I didn't understand until I had been pregnant myself and wearing the same clothes over and over, just how important a new dress was.

To me, Aunt Sandra always seemed unruffled. I am so sorry for your loss. I hope my memories gave you a smile.

Love you,
