“ Shanna, I didn't know you very well, but I know my Uncle Rusty really loved you very much. I wish we could have all gotten together for a family reunion. I got to talk to you a few times through Facebook and I thank you for listening. I love you cousin , Shanna and will miss you. To all your family and friends in Arkansas, my deepest condolences. God bless you all. Debra Cole

“ Shanna,

When we first met, and as broken as we were instantly I knew it'd be you.. I'm so very blessed to have been a part of the life you made for yourself. The life where you loved deeply, had compassion, sobriety, and the courage to stand up for what you wanted. I'm not sure you ever knew how loved you are. You took my life and completely changed it for the better. You taught me the meaning of love, and showed your love with everything you did. You absolutely, 100%, changed my life for the better! You will always be loved by me and I will never forget the times we had. Good or bad, every memory is special to me. The good times were amazing, and the bad times you were my rock and helped me push through. You used to tell me all the time that I saved you.. no my dear you saved all of us. You constantly were always trying to do for others.

Thank you for being my best friend, my keeper of secrets, my reason, my everything. My life will certainly won't be as bright or as interesting as it was with you. I love you so much and am so thankful you left me your crazy family to hold on too. I will always have you in my heart.

And yes darling I remember, "For I reckon the present sufferings is nothing compared to the Glory God can bestow upon you." Romans 8:18

This isn't goodbye, I'm GOING to see you again.

Love always,

~Your Drew

" Could you? (Pick up the pieces of me.)

Could you? (Could you still love me.)

Could you? (Could you catch me when I fall?)

Could you? (And we rise above it all.)

Could you? (And hold me when it hurts?)

Could you love me anyway?
